

Via Carlo Foldi 6, 20135 Milano, Italy
0039-3395768410 - tommaso.crosta@studbocconi.it

Nationality: Italian

Born in Milan the 11th of March 1997

Tommaso Crosta

Formation

- Sept 2021-today Research Assistant at University Bocconi
for professor Guido Tabellini
- Feb 2021-July 2021 Research Assistant at University Bocconi
for professor Nicola Gennaioli
- Apr 2020-today IGIER Visiting Student
Mentors: professor Nicola Gennaioli and professor Pierpaolo Battigalli
- Sept 2019-today University Luigi Bocconi, Milano, Italy
MSc in Economics and Social Sciences
PhD courses: Real Analysis I (Measure Theory), Probability I
Thesis: "Memory, Emotions and Poverty" (working title)
- Feb-June 2019 University of Saint Andrews, Scotland, UK
Semester abroad as a part of Bocconi's exchange program
Courses attended: International Trade, Econometrics of Impact Evaluation, Behavioural Economics, Economics of Migration
- Sept 2016-Feb 2019 University Luigi Bocconi, Milano, Italy
Bachelor degree in Economics and Social Sciences 110/110 Thesis: "A tale of taxes and transfers: an analysis of the redistributive effect of fiscal systems in OECD countries"
- Sept 2010-June 2016 Giuseppe Parini Classical High School
Course of study expanded with Ancient Greek, Latin and Philosophy
High school diploma grade: 100/100

Foreign Languages

English: native speaker level (International English Language Testing System, level C2)
German: B1 level
Spanish: B1 level

IT Skills

ECDL (European Computer Driving License), Advanced Power Point, Word and Latex proficiency
Stata: advanced knowledge R: advanced knowledge (programming Bayesian models through Stan)
Mathlab: good knowledge Python: good knowledge

Personal Interests

Work Experiences: private tutoring lessons for high school students (Mathematics, Physics, Ancient Greek, Latin, Philosophy, Italian and English literature and History)